By Death Angel, we meet a hero that truly has the goodness of love for Andie as what keeps him from being utterly "beyond the pale" to quote Regency terminology. But again, Linda makes it believable and understandable...this man doesn't prey on you and me, but on the really big bad fish. The ones we really don't want around.

Recently I wrote that Cry No More was Linda Howards best novel, but after reading Death Angel I have to amend that opinion. The author gives us two main characters-a mob bosses mistress and a paid assassin, and with the skill only a great writer has, she managed to make me care about them- to the point I was rooting for them to manage to put the past behind and start a new life.

I've read about everything Linda Howard has written and I have enjoyed them all. In Death Angel the reader is caught up in the story from the first few words and from there on it becomes a roller coaster thrill ride. For fans of this author, you will not be disappointed and for those who love thrillers, there is plenty of action.

The DARK Side of Linda Howard~ Mistress & Hitman GREAT~ Death Angel is a story about redemption~ I loved it~ simple and to the point Drea Rousseau is the "arm candy"/ mistress to crime lord Rafael Salinas~ a totally amoral man. Drea 'uses' men to get better diamonds, clothes and what ever else the men give her~ a woman with out a soul.
