Max gives us the privilege in Grace. More than we deserve, Greater than we imagine, to look at God revealed to us in Christ Jesus, but goes even further and challenges us to jump in the arms of God ' s grace, a grace that changes us, transforms us, shapes us and strengthens our lives. It meets us where we are but does not leave us where it found us.

Grace: More Than We Deserve, Greater Than We Imagine: Max ...

"Grace is God as heart surgeon, cracking open your chest, removing your heart—poisoned as it is with pride and pain—and replacing it with his own. Rather than tell you to change, he creates the change. Do you clean up so he can accept you? No, he accepts you and begins cleaning you up," Lucado writes.

Grace: More Than We Deserve, Greater Than We Imagine by ...

Michael Horton writes, “ In grace, God gives nothing less than Himself. Grace, then, is not a third thing or substance mediating between God and sinners, but is Jesus Christ in redeeming action. ” Christians live every day by the grace of God. We receive forgiveness according to the riches of God ' s grace, and grace drives our sanctification.

What is Grace? Understanding Christian Meaning

David had been given more than he deserved. Outline I. God's goodness comes from His nature, not our worthiness (v. 6) Surely denotes a fact as certain as it is comforting. Too good to be true? No, God is much too good not to be true. He is good - as good as we're capable of imagining Him to be - the only good person in the world. II.

“ What I did was bad, ” we acknowledge, “ but your grace is greater than my sin, so I confess it. ” If our understanding of grace is small, our confession will be small: reluctant, hesitant, hedged with excuses and qualifications, full of fear of punishment. But great grace creates an honest confession. ”
