From Cannibals to Christ-Followers—A True Story In 1962, Don and Carol Richardson risked their lives to share the gospel with the Savi people of New Guinea. Peace Child tells their unforgettable story of living among these headhunters and cannibals, who valued treachery through fattening victims with friendship before the slaughter. God gave Don and Carol the key to the Savi hearts via a redemptive analogy from their own mythology. The "peace child" became the secret to unlocking a value system that had existed through generations. This analogy became a stepping-stone by which the gospel came into the Savi culture and started both a spiritual and a social revolution from within. With an epilogue updating how the gospel has impacted the Savi people, this missionary classic will inspire a new generation of readers who need to hear this remarkable story and the lessons it teaches us about communicating Christ in a meaningful way to those around us.
