“ The number one thing I tell people about taking care of cast iron is to not wash them with water or soap. After each use, scrub them down with salt. ” While the use of water—and, especially soap (read more about that controversial subject here)—sparks heated debate, there ' s one rule most everyone agrees on.

I do not fear Creepy Young Girls. I fear most things, but I do not fear the Creepy Young Girls. I accept them. I don't know that I was ever one of them, but I was an "intense" child, and they are similar, if not quite the same. Thus I feel a kinship with them. I can't say I understand them, of course: no one can ever really, completely understand them.
