servant. The concept of servanthood is incredibly distasteful in our culture.

America is (supposedly) a nation where no one is inherently better than anyone else. To us, being someone's servant means you think of yourself as a less worthy person, and that they think down upon you.

The Heart of a Servant | Unlocking the Bible

In these pages, I read about his heart as a servant leader. It is not a biography but knowing someone's heart is more than we know many people around us. The book is a collection of his letters to others. Once again how sorry I am to see that writing letters is a dying art of our age and a dead practice of our life!

Introduction: 1. According to the text, greatness comes through serving, not being served. 2. Although Philip may not be the first person you would think of who possessed the heart of a servant, he certainly possessed one.

Whoever wants to be great must become a servant ~ Mark 10:43 (Msg)
How does the world define greatness?
The four P's ~ power, possessions, prestige and position. We live in a self-serving culture, a me-first mentality. Jesus, measured greatness totally different, in terms of service and not status.

CITY HARVEST CHURCH HEART OF A SERVANT LYRICS - Yaddah ...

A servant is a person who meets the needs of others. A servant is an individual who puts themselves under submission to another. A servant is different from a slave in that a servant's loyalty to one's master is voluntary, but a slave's is not. Every slave is a servant, but not every servant is a slave.

It is about the heart which drives everything else. In this review, I am going lay out principles coming from those letters. Our motivation to serve must be God's glory "The Christian leader should be the chief servant"not necessarily the successful one, but the one working to make others successful.
